

I Love to Read and Write Week Schedule

Greetings, TASOK Readers!

To kick off I Love to Read and Write Week, please read this poetic plan of events.

The week of February 26
will surely bring delight
as we celebrate some special gifts.
How we love to read and write!

Each day right after lunch
Everyone will stop.
Drop Everything And Read, D.E.A.R.
That's right, everything must drop!

On Monday morning, bright and early,
Let's gather all as one.
Can each class read 500 books?
We're sure it can be done!

Hats off to reading... poems
perhaps two or a few.
Explore figurative language of lit.
And, that will be day two.

On Wednesday expect some special guests
from avored fiction galore.
Will Camilla Cream or Nate the Great arrive smiling at your door?

Having mixed it up on Wednesday,
it's time for nonfiction to take a turn Come dressed on Thursday, all grown up, doing the job for which you yearn.

Friday's our finale.
Let's celebrate Dr. Seuss.
Will you become The Cat in the Hat or wear pjs? You choose!

For the last day, there's so much more.
You better take a seat.
Check out books in the library,
before picking up a tasty treat.

And, don't forget to bring your pep
at 2:30 to the rally.
We will clap and chant and cheer.
Can't wait to see our read-book tally!
